Customer Reviews

How to Write a Legend: The Easy Way by Lisa Waters is an excellent resource for anyone considering writing a legend. As a bilingual teacher, my passion for legends led me to write two children's books based on legends, The Legend of the Colombian Mermaid and The Legend of Roberto Cofresi - A Puerto Rican Hero. Of course, the legends are my own retellings that I revamped and updated for today's young readers. As I read through Mrs. Waters' book, I was amazed at how simply she laid out a blueprint to follow for writing legends. Lisa's book teaches how to create a legend versus a myth something which is often confused. This is one resource I will be using in my classroom as well as recommending to fellow teachers. Thank you, Lisa Waters, for dedicating this book to me and providing helpful insight into the beautiful genre of legends. Five well-deserved stars for Writing Legends: The Easy Way!

The author Lisa Waters created an easy way book for all writers. She explains what a legend is and how to write them with a checklist step by step. My favorite line âœMyths and legend were not authored by individual the way stories are developed, but evolved naturallyâ jâ • Itâ ™s amazing how a legend have passed by mouth from generations to generations.I highly recommend How to write a Legend: The Easy Way for classrooms and parents who want to explore this unique genre.
