Mistake: A Bad Boy Stepbrother Romance

Synopsis

Even bad boys can be tamed . . . by a baby. My stepbrother-to-be is an arrogant bastard. He wants to make me his next conquest, and he wants to use me to embarrass his father. So why can't I resist his bad boy charm, and how the hell did I make the mistake of having his baby? But there's a voice in the back of my head that tells me maybe, just maybe, I can change him for the better so that our baby will make him a better man. ©Mistake is a full-length romance with an HEA. It was previously published as three novellas called Stepbrother Bad Boy's Baby.

Customer Reviews

Julian Castelbon was a straight up seven year old having a nearly 20 year temper tantrum. Ever since his parents divorced when he was seven, he's lived with his father doing his best to get his attention by making him miserable. Unfortunately, this man-child has a nearly endless supply of money, women and alcohol to do his best work with. That's the only work he does besides adding muscle mass at the gym. Krystal Askoy was able to secure the time off from Alinea where she was working. She aspired to become an executive chef. Nine days off to spend time with her mom leading up to the wedding. She couldn't be happier for her mom, Jonathan is such a good man. Julian and Krystal are opposite ends of the spectrum, but there are sparks when they touch to practice dance before the wedding. It had them both backing away before they did a simple dance. Krystal had already seen through his BS and recognized he was hurt and insecure. He had been trying to watch his language around her, but his smarmy look served as a reminder as to why it was good to keep her distance. Julian never went through with his plan with Krystal. He knew she was interested, but looked at him like he wasn't good enough for her. This is why six weeks later he phones her to ask if she could pick him up from Chicago's O'Hare and put him up. Krystal has him grab a cab and one of the first things she does is tell him it's only a few days she'll let him stay, no parties, no women, etc., etc. Okay, she basically had her friend Kimberly find everything possible on Julian. With Kimberly being a computer genius, there's nothing she doesn't know about Julian's life. Krystal reiterated what she's found about him and asks him what he is really doing there.
