Clemencia (Spanish Edition)

Synopsis

La historia comienza presentándonos a dos mujeres, Clemencia (morena) e Isabel (rubia), opuestas las dos en carácter como lo son físicamente. Ellas son cortejadas por dos varones, también de muy distinta condición moral: Enrique Fiarez, un "arrivista", hipócrita y sin escrúpulos, que corteja a Isabel, y Fernando del Valle, un idealista, sincero y apasionado, que hace el amor a Clemencia. La una y la otra prefieren a Enrique. Clemencia, por su parte, siempre se muestra fría hasta el grado de menospreciar a Fernando. Nada falta, sin embargo, los sentimientos de este hacia la esquiva Clemencia, se hacen más fuertes. Pero, por otra parte, la atracción que experimentan entre sí - Clemencia y Enrique termina en matrimonio, hecho que colma de tristeza y amargura el corazón de Fernando quien al igual que Enrique, pertenece al partido liberal, en donde toman parte en las luchas políticas, pero Fiarez, como es su costumbre, traiciona a sus correligionarios, manteniendo secretos contactos con el enemigo.

Customer Reviews

This was the first love book that I ever read, almost 16 years ago, and still make the tears come to my eyes. Through the story one can see that very often the people who really deserve to be loved are not the most handsome, and if you are just looking with your very eyes instead of with your heart, you may miss a wonderful opportunity or a lifetime love. The drama between Clemencia and her two solicitors is very thrilling; one is handsome and ruthless, the other is ugly and tender, noble, brave; oh well!!!, you may guess the very end...but the book is worth every pence you spend on it. I highly recommended it, but take the kleenex with you!.
