The Scarlet Letter (Spanish Edition)

Synopsis

Nathaniel Hawthorne nació el 4 de julio de 1804 en Salem, antano gran puerto de mar, en una familia de comerciantes y capitanes entonces ya en decadencia. Fue criado por su madre viuda en una casa encantada. En todos los textos del autor cabe hallar detalles sobre la vida familiar, que su imaginación concibió, de una manera obsesiva y, al mismo tiempo, con un característico humorismo irónico. Entre sus primeros antepasados figuró el juez Hathorne, perseguidor de brujas. Otro de sus antecesores espirituales fue el teólogo puritano Jonathan Edwards.

Customer Reviews

This book was written in the 19th century to make a point about the 19th century. To do so, however, it caricatures the 17th-century Puritans pretty badly, a people who were generally cheerful, generous, and deeply suspicious of legalism. They even wore colorful clothing. I encourage you to read The Scarlet Letter as a classic novel that speaks to a number of universal human themes, just don't expect it to be historically accurate.
