Customer Reviews

Originally reviewed for Bodice Rippers, Femme Fatales and Fantasy! seriously adore Carolyn Brown!! She writes the most creative and fun stories.. about Cowboys no less. Cowboy Boots for Christmas had me giggling and sighing all the way through!! It's book one for her new series.. Burnt Boot (that's not just the name of the series, it's the name of the town it's set in)All Finn O'Donnell was to be left alone. A little space from his insane overly large family. Since he got out of the service he has been feeling a bit confined, so when a ripe little ranch literally drops into his arms, Finn can't refuse. It's close enough that he can make it home in a few hours but far enough that he's got the space he needs. All is good! Of course it is.. that is until Callie Brewster shows up at his door, asking for help.Callie Brewster, fresh out of the service and a sudden mother. When her beloved sister died, Callie was left with a nephew that needed some serious love and stability. Of course life is never that easy, when said nephew is a witness to a serious crime, they are suggesting witness protection. Callie has a better idea. Finn was her partner (he was a sniper and she was his spotter) she knows he can help. So off to Texas they go..They just need to adjust until after Christmas then everyone can go back to normal. Except life is never ever that simple. Remember that quiet little ranch Finn was looking forward to? There's a reason it sold so cheap.. There's a feud going on and Finn's Ranch is neutral territory (sort of) and everyone wants him to pick a side. Except for Finn, Callie and three sweet little old ladies *snort*. There's nothing sweet about those women..
